AUTUMN TOURNAMENT AT

LIMITED GUN CLUB.

Many Out-of-Town Shooters Entered in the Various Events-Result of Day's Shooting.

The shooters who are attending the sixth annual autumn tournament of the Limited Gun Club, which began yesterday, could not ask for better weather than favored the tournament yesterday. There was but little wind and the sky was clear, making high scores possible. Many out-of-town shooters are entered in the various events, among them being Ed Rike, Dayton, O.; W. R. Crosby, O'Fallon, Ill.; Charles Budd, Des Moines, Ia.; Fred Gilbert, Spirit Lake, Ia.; Guy Burnsides, Knoxville, Ill.; Rollo O. Heikes, Dayton, O.; Luther Squire, Cincinnati; Ralph Trimble, Dayton, Ky.; Elwallader, Danville, Ill., and W. I. Irwin, Chicago. Nearly all of the leading local

Yesterday there were twelve events at targets, including the event for the Grand Hotel cup. The latter event was for fifty targets. The professional shooters entered this event for the sweepstakes, but were and Heikes split first money, each scoring ofty straight. Tripp won the cup with a score of forty-eight. This is the fourth time he has successfully defended it. The best work was accomplished by Glibert, who missed but two targets during the entire day, and he participated in all of the events. He scored 215 out of a possible 217. He shot in the extra event at seven live pigeons, killing straight. His work was very creditable and he carried off the most In addition to the twelve events at tarccts one extra event at seven pigeons was shot during the afternoon, resulting as follows: Tripp, Marott, Gilbert, Helkes, rwin, Cadwallader, Crosby, Comstock and | their territories overlap. Rudd, seven each; Neal and Burnsides, six each: Craig, Werke and Parry, five each. Those who missed one bird secured more money than those who killed straight, as there were nine to divide first money. The programme for the day includes ten events at live sparrows. The first is at | ten sparrows, $3 entrance, and the other nine events are at fifteen sparrows, $4.50 entrance. The scores for yesterday's events

The New President Here.

James M. Lynch, of Syracuse, N. Y., the new president of the International Typographical Union, arrived in the city yesterday morning and at noon Samuel B. Donnelly turned the management of affairs over to the new officer. Mr. Lynch will bring his family here to live while he is at the head of the International Union. His first official order was to all local unions in the country to make an investigation regarding the number of unorganized printers and tradesmen coming under the jurisdiction of the union and report to him at once. His policy is to vigorously push organiza-

Roads Have Not Profited, as Expected. by Political Rallies-St. Paul Advances Pay of Engineers.

The Toledo, St. Louis & Western withdrawing from the eastbound freight committee at St. Louis is interpreted by traffic men as a very clear intention on the part of the management to unscrupulously cut freight rates, which it could hardly do without getting into serious trouble-if its membership were maintained. To carry out a policy of this character with impunity would necessitate the taking of this step. The closing of the road's Eastern agencies, as was predicted, has seriously cut down its westbound tonnage. It was intimated at the time the new management took hold that it was determined to the road at present is working with scalpers and the charge does not appear to have ever been denied or controverted.

Campaign Travel Disappointing.

Passenger officials of railroads operating are disappointed at the financial showing thus far made in connection with the running of special trains for political rallies. speeches that no man is fit to be President The roads of Indiana, which has been one of the principal stumping grounds for both the Democratic and Republican campaigners, and which has been the scene of more | better position to wage a successful con-State in the Union, possibly, with the exception of New York, are disappointed. Some of the roads made elaborate preparations for the multitudes expected to swarm from points away from the rallying ground, setting aside coaches which might have been used for other excursion purposes and increasing the number of agents.

A Good Month on the Belt Road. In the month of October there were transfered over the Belt road 87,166 cars. Belt road engines handled at the stockyards 5,636 carloads of live stock, and for private switches located on its line 4,315

Personal, Local and General Notes. There were handled on the Big Four lines proper in October 147,200 loaded cars; on the Peoria & Eastern 20,200 loaded cars. The Wabash is rebuilding a number of its en-wheel freight engines at its shops in Fort Wayne, converting them into passenger engines. C. E. Schaff, general manager, and J. Q. Van Winkle, general superintendent of the Big Four lines, were in Chicago yesterday and will be in St. Louis to-day. The Erle is building at Huntington, Ind., a large brick roundhouse, resting on a stone foundation, with stalls long enough to admit readily any of the company's Republicanism.

M. D. Royer yesterday succeeded Franklin Fairman as auditor of freight receipts of the Illinois Central, Mr. Fairman taking the position of special auditor in the vice president's office.

President Thomas, of the Erie, and subordinate officials, have this week been cago this evening. Alexander Craw, for seventeen years nanager of the telegraph department of the West Shore road, has been appointed claim agent of the Pennsylvania division of the New York Central lines. John Mansfield, passenger conductor of the St. Louis division of the Big Four, who has been laid off duty several weeks on account of rheumatism, is so much better that he expects to take his train again on Among the names prominently mentioned for general passenger agent of the Baltimore & Ohio, succeeding the late J. M. Schryver, is that of P. McCarty, general passenger agent of the Baltimore & Ohio It is stated that with Charles Hayes taking the presidency of the Southern Pacific, J. C. Stubbs will become first vice president, and that E. O. McCormick, the presmer E. Neal, Bloomfield, Ind.; H. W. Cad- ent passenger traffic manager of the lines, will be made third vice president. Wm. F. Miller, city ticket agent of the Lehigh Valley at New York, has resigned to take a like position with the Santa Fe in its Broadway office, succeeding George Ead. who has been secretary for the general Eastern passenger agent, W. D. Smith. G. P. Smith, formerly chief engineer of the St. Joseph & Grand Island, has been gineer of the Lake Shore road. He will look chiefly after the Lake Erie & Western lines now controlled by the Lake Shore. Primus A. Clark, ticket agent of the Erie oad at Cleveland, has tendered his resignation. Mr. Clark started in railroad work with the Big Four and went to the Erie several years ago. F. S. Howard, of Union City, will succeed Mr. Clark with the Erie. It is stated that with Charles M. Hays taking the presidency of the Southern Paeific a more friendly policy toward the Santa Fe will be pursued and there will be some understanding between the two companies as to new construction wherever

The board of directors of the Pennsylvania Ratiroad yesterday declared the usual semi-annual dividend of 21/2 per cent, and an extra dividend of 1 per cent. on the capital stock of the company, payable on and after Nov. 30, 1900, to the stockholders, as registered on the company's books at the close of business on Oct. 31.

L. Briggs, general manager of the Fast Freight Line Traders' Dispatch, was in the city yesterday, calling on shippers. He states that in his long connection with freight traffic he has not known conditions to be more satisfactory as to volume of business and adherence to tariffs. Like other lines, the Traders' Dispatch is short of cars. Yesterday a number of changes became effective on the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern. E. R. Scovill, superintendent of telegraph, goes to Flora, Ill., as superintendent of the Quincy division, succeeding G. H. Groce. C. T. Hendrickson, who the past five years has been chief clerk to General Superintendent Long, is made superintendent of telegraph and Harry G. Kruse succeeds Mr. Henrickson.

In the great Republican parade at Cleveland to-morrow railroad men will take a conspicuous part. The railroad presidents, the general managers, the general superintendents and heads of the departments will turn out with the men and form a part of the great marching force. The railroad offices will be closed at noon and everything ertaining to business will be suspended or the afternoon and evening.

Saxby's Travelers' Magazine for November is unusually interesting and is well illustrated. Among others are pictures of C. S. Crane, general passenger and ticket agent of the Wabash, and Col. William Shaw, district passenger agent of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, and sketches of the railroad careers of these two officials. The address in full of Col. C. S. Crane before the Traveling Passenger Agents' Association at Old Point Comfort is one of the features.

The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago vesterday put in service the new double track between Maples and Monroeville. Of the 278 miles of the Western division of the road 107 miles are now double track. and the work of double-tracking the entire division is progressing as rapidly as the force employed will permit. An official says that there is much trouble to secure men for the work. The company would have at work one hundred more men, but is not able to secure them.

Sir Charles Rivers Wilson, president of the Grand Trunk, will to-morrow sail from soon be known who is to succeed Charles M. Hays as general manager of that property. The report comes from one who claims to be well informed that before resigning his position Mr. Hays suggested Joseph Ramsey, general manager of the Wabash line, as a fit man for the place. This report comes from the same source that predicted the election of Mr. Hays as president of the Southern Pacific The committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul have returned home from a meeting with the general manager and the general superintendent. Their request for an advance in wages was granted without hesitation, the new schedule to go into effect Nov. 28, and will affect every one of the 2,200 engineers on the system. The compound ten-wheel and eight-wheel men pay will be increased 15 cents per 100 miles, the switch engineers being increased 271/2 cents a day. The aggregate of these increases will amount to $30,000 per annum.

THE HICKORY ELM CLUB.

Roundup by Col. Snort-Importance of the Campaign Lie.

Colonel Snort was the first man on th order. Said he: "Gentlemen, as vice chanevery member here who is earnestly and have business, and if it could not be ob- dishonestly advocating the election of Mr. tained in the manner proposed without Bryan that the time for lying representacontinuing the Eastern soliciting force tions and political roorbacks is growing drastic measures would be adopted to com- exceedingly short, and it therefore bepel recognition from connections. Already | that is likely to affect passenger as well | the Democratic bureau of information has as freight business. There is a belief that | launched the report that Grover Cleveland intends to vote for Bryan and that he has said that there will be a landslide to him at the polls. This false and improbable story should be spread in all the Democratic precincts of the towns and cities of the country, before Mr. Cleveland can in the central West, generally peaking, have time to head it off with one of his indignant denials. "Senator Fairbanks is saying in his > islands and then gave as a reason that he believed that by ratifying it," we (meaning the Bryan Democracy) would be in a demonstrations than any other | tent against Imperialism than we would have been had the treaty been rejected. because, with the treaty ratified, a cleancut issue is presented between a government by consent and a government by force. It is said that Senator Fairbanks takes the skin off Mr. Bryan on this prop osition, and shows him up in his true light as a trickster and an unconscionable demagogue, incapable of entertaining a high dea of patriotism, and unworthy to be mentioned in connection with the office of President. This is a serious arraignment of our candidate, and the charges must be met by a prompt and shameless denial." Colonel Garlic-That puts us on the defensive, Colonel Snort. We ought not to waste time in that way. I think it would be better to be aggressive by going after the enemy with trumped-up charges of fraud and corruption. We can't stop to answer the charge that Bryan is a political fraud and a self-admitted humbug; that Croker is a political pirate; that Indiana Democratic managers intend to buy up election boards and hire men to stay away from the polls or intimidate and prevent them from voting by pulling a receipt for a dollar received in consideration of a vote for Bryan; that Altgeld is an Anarchist; that Tillman is a nigger killer, or that Goebel stole the governorship of Kentucky. In other words, we will have no time to undertake to make a favorable showing for Bryanism, Taggartism, Crokerism, Altgeld-

Colonel Snort-Who said anything about making a defense or a favorable showing? I merely said that we should deny the charges that are being hurled against Bryan and his political satellites in this campaign. It would be useless to undertake to explain to intelligent people the necessity for turning over the affairs of the Demoinspecting the property, proceeding by easy cratic party to Croker and his crowd, even daylight stages. They will arrive in Chisay that we are not playing in great luck to be able to plead want of time. Gentlemen, the fight of Bryan Democracy is against the allied forces of wealth and industry in this country which is crushing the very life out of the organization to which we belong. The Republicans are scaring and intimidating the old women and the young orphans of the land by showing them what the consequences will be to their slender surplus in the savings bank if Bryan is elected and begins to get rid of the gold standard. Clerks, mechanics and day laborers are made to see, and have become convinced that Bryan's election would mean lower salaries for all and no employment for many that are now enjoying a degree of prosperity they never enjoyed before. Employes are compelled by the consent of their wives and little ones to march in Republican parades and hurrah for McKinley and Roosevelt, enjoying much needed exercise in the open air, away from the dust of the factory and the foul smell of dyestuffs in the dry goods store. The dollar is put before the man where he is made to hustle for it, and when he overtakes it finds that it takes four of them to buy five bushels of wheat of the proud and boastful Kansas farmer. The price of money has got so low under McKinley's administration that the retired saloon keeper on $50,000 is unable to live on the interest. The Dingley tariff has dumped into this country a balance from foreign trade that has astounded the world and will sooner or later breed a spirit of envy and jealousy in Europe and Aguinaldo that will result in more bloody war. It is upon these lines that we must attack the enemy. And we must not forget Mark Hanna, the great Republican bull's-eye for the shafts and arrows of Bryanocracy in this campaign. Let every man do his full Democratic duty from now until the polls close. If he can get a fact that can be twisted and distorted into a campaign lie let him send it forth upon its proper mission, and if we do not win we will have the proud satisfaction of knowing that our reputation for political sagacity, rascality, chicanery and smooth work has not been impaired by our W. WANTS TO BE NATURALIZED.

Ikko Matsumoto's Application Now Being Considered.

Ikko Matsumoto, the well-known Japanese jeweler, yesterday applied to Judge Carter, of the Superior Court, for his second naturalization papers. The judge now has the matter under advisement and is looking up all the authority available to ascertain if Matsumoto can become a citizen of the United States under the present law. The United States statutes provide for the naturalization of white men or the Caucasian race, and also the black or African race, but nothing is said about the Mongolian. Unless Matsumoto can be classified with either of these two he cannot become a citizen of the United States.

Judge Carter regretted very much to deny the papers for the time being and said there was certainly some way out of it. He at once began to search the volumes of law books in his office and the library to find if there is not some construction that will allow Matsumoto the right of suffrage. Before the war the law applied to white men only, but afterwards a clause had to be introduced admitting the black man. For a period of two years the word "white" was once stricken from the law, but it was again inserted to bar the Chinese from becoming citizens. Business at the Stockyards.

In the month of October there were received at the Union Stockyards 117,968 hogs, shipped 21,035; cattle 14,375 head, shipped 3.484 head; sheep received 6,315 head, ship-2.720 head. From the above statement it will be seen that of the 117,968 hogs received 96,933 were bought by Indianapolis packing houses, out of 14,375 cattle 9,791 head were bought by local packers and

WAITING ON SICK JUROR

THE WORK OF THE GRAND JURY PRACTICALLY AT A STANDSTILL.

Judge Alvord Will Give Juror Hanch Until Wednesday to Appear -Other Court Cases.

George Hanch, member of the grand jury, was not able to attend yesterday's session, and the investigation of the Higgins case was practically suspended. About all the evidence the grand jury expects is now in, and Prosecutor Pugh is only waiting until Hanch comes in or another juror is appointed to make a report.

Judge Alford, of the Criminal Court, said he would give Hanch until next Wednesday to come in, and if he is not able to attend the grand jury by that time he will be discharged and another member will be appointed in his place. Prosecutor Pugh has the minutes of the grand jury in such shape that it will take but a few minutes to read all the necessary evidence to a new juror. He says a report can be made in two hours if the absent member of the jury

This preparation of the testimony and the manner in which it appears to be condensed is taken to mean that there is some strong evidence against Higgins unknown to the public sufficient to warrant an indictment against him. One thing is certain, the testimony has been of such a nature that Higgins has either been deeply incriminated or he will go scot free, otherwise points of so much significance could not be presented in a few minutes. From the attitude of the grand jury it is believed Higgins will be indicted.

While there was no apparent action yesterday, the grand jury was trying to get more information regarding the "account" Higgins has chalked up against the Indiana killing these ordinances, but the only tangible story the jury has to investigate is the charge that the Brewers' Association gave him money for his "influence" or vote. Albert Liebler has not yet returned to the city, and nothing tangible could be learned about the rumor that he held Higgins's receipt for $100.

BARRETT LAW UPHELD.

The Supreme Court Again Interprets It-Other Cases.

The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the judgment in the case of Annie E. Taylor against the city of Crawfordsville, refusing to enjoin the improvement of a street in Crawfordsville, and incidentally upholding the Barrett law. Judge Baker filed a dissenting opinion.

The case of William T. Melott and Oliver M. Gardner against Charles M. Messmore was filed on appeal in the Supreme Court yesterday. Messmore in his complaint claimed that he had been deceived into deeding his property to Melott & Gardner in exchange for 1,000 acres of land in Tennessee. The lower court ordered his property restored to him.

They Will Be Tried on Fridays by Judge Leathers.

To-day Judge Leathers will adopt a new rule for hearing divorce suits. Hereafter, the first Friday of each month will be devoted entirely to hearing default cases. Judge Leathers has already denied two divorces under this new plan and to-day promises to be an interesting session. The other day a case was set for trial but the judge declined to hear it until the defendant was present. She lives in Chicago. The judge sent her a telegram, asking her if she wished to enter an appearance, and a reply was at once received in the affirmative and saying she would be here this morning. Judge Carter also thinks of setting apart one day each month for hearing default cases. judges hope to direct the attention of the Legislature this winter to this kind of divorce suits, and have a law enacted that will provide compensation for the prosecuting attorney to defend all such cases. At the last session of the General Assembly a bill of this nature was presented, but was lost almost as soon as it left the hands of the committee. So overwhelming was the vote against it that no further attempt was ever made to again present the matter. The members claimed it was only a plan to secure fees. It is thought the matter will receive more consideration this time.

A Complicated Title Case.

Yesterday there was a hitch in the case of Jesse Warrington against Sophia E Rhodes and others to quiet title, in Judge Allen's court. A mortgage foreclosure also figures in the suit. The case was to be presented to a jury, when one of the attorneys objected. Judge Allen explained that the title suit was all that would go before the jury and the foreclosure proceedings will be taken care of by him. He said it was necessary to settle the title question before he could determine the merits of the mortgage. The decision of the title case will practically settle the mortgage question, but the case is badly complicated, and it will take considerable deliberation to straighten matters out.

The Case Transferred. The case of Charles Berkes against the Republic Iron and Steel Works was transferred yesterday from the Lake Superior Court to the United States Circuit Court. Berkes was employed by the company as a shearsman and alleges in his complaint that while he was cutting up iron and preparing it for the furnaces he was ordered by his foreman to place a piece of iron on his shears in a way to which he was unaccustomed and as a consequence the iron, which was very heavy, fell on his leg and the bones, muscles and ligaments were broken and lacerated to his permanent injury. He claims $10,000 damages.

Will of Mary Newman Carey.

The will of Mary Newman Carey was probated yesterday. She bequeathed her property on North West street to her son, John Newman Carey; her interest in the Hannah farm, in Ferry township, and the lake lands in Lake county to her son and daughter. she became ill and is permanently injured.

Allen Jennings Sues. Allen Jennings yesterday filed suit against Wilson S. McMillen, Charles F. Dawson and Robert Jordan for $5,000 damages for alleged malicious prosecution. Jennings avers that he was arrested for making political speeches, on a charge of obstructing the street. He says he was tried and acquitted in Police Court.

Gridiron Contests in This City To-Morrow.

There will be two football games in Indianapolis to-morrow afternoon. At Washington Park the Butler and Wabash College teams will meet. Coach Kelly has made many changes in the Butler team and he now believes his aggregation in fit condition to make an even battle with the Wabash team. At Newby Oval the Indianapolis High School and the Louisville High School teams will meet for the second time this season. The two teams played at Louisville earlier in the season and Indianapolis won. Louisville came to Indianapolis to play the M. T. H. S. team and lost another game to representatives of Indianapolls. The teams will line up this afternoon practically as they did at Louisville when they first met this season. The Manual Training School team will play the Louisville Manual Training School eleven at Louisville to-morrow.

The City Club started off poorly in the opening games of the Tenpin League las week, owing to the fact that only four men rolled in the games, but last night that team did much better and took two of the three games from the Merchants. The Merchants won the first contest by margin of only five pins. The Rinks won two from the Criterions, being defeated in the second game by a score of 759 to 736 The Monitors showed greatly improved form last night and reversed the outcome three, by taking three straight last night from the Maroons. The best scores were made in the games between the Columbias and Blue Labels, the former winning the first and third games. Swartz rolled the high score of the evening in the first game, making 210. The Blue Labels won the second game with a score of 873, the highest club score for the night. The individual scores were as follows:

CITY'S CHARITY WORKERS

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CHARITY ORGANIZATION SOCIETY.

Fine Showing Made by the Savings Department-The Business of the Year.

The executive committee of the Charity Organization Society met yesterday afternoon to receive the report of Secretary Grout and plan work for the coming year. The report of Mr. Grout was lengthy, and the various departments of work were reviewed in detail. The records of the secretary showed during the year 737 applications for assistance. Of these 426 had been in the city but a few months, and had been dependents upon similar organizations in aces of former residence.

The matters of begging, charity workers' disappointments, and the "hard-luck" applicants were discussed at length, and many examples that have come to the notice of the officers were given in order to show the methods of those seeking assistance and those of the society in dealing with such case for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the applicant is The savings department is one which

The report showed that the collectors, who visit the homes of the poorer classes for the collection of nickels, dimes and quarters, made in 1893-94, 19,655 visits; in 1897-98, 63,579 visits, collecting $17,749.51. Last year 90,234 calls were made, and the collections amounted to $44,577.31. These amounts represent savings of small amounts which would never be saved by the families were they not urged by the society. The amounts collected each time are so small that should each depositor take time to make a trip to a depository the value of the time lost would be fully as much as the amount of the sav-The Friendly Inn was reported to be now in the best condition since the opening.
